

MenUnitedFrome: Men's Curry Nights in 2017

The following dates and speakers have been arranged for 2017, each evening to be held at Frome Town FC 7.00 for 7.30 pm. Ending at 9.15/9.30pm.

Wednesday 29 March

Revd Andy Bowerman. Andy lives in Rode. He is Co-Executive Director of Anglican Alliance working closely with Justin Welby; Southampton FC Chaplain; House for Duty vicar in Rode. He travels widely in Africa, the Middle East and the Americas.

Wednesday 10 May

Revd Andrew Wingfield Digby. He is the founder of Christians in Sport and was the England cricket chaplain/chaplain to the Olympic team for many years. He played cricket for Oxford University and Dorset.

Wednesday 12 July

James Cary. James is an author and playwright. His writes for the BBC, has produced plays which have toured the UK and received accolades at the Edinburgh Festival. He is very funny! He serves on General Synod, grew up in Beckington, educated at Frome College and now lives in Yeovil. His latest play, to be performed at Spring Harvest and New Wine this year is:

A Monk's Tale: Relics, Revolt and Reformation! It's a Reduced-Shakespeare-Horrible-Histories style comedy, with a bit of the Canterbury tales thrown in. Suitable for all ages - and written for audiences who don't even know which Luther we're talking about. And probably don't even know about the original one!

2017 marks the 500th anniversary of Luther launching the Reformation.

Wednesday 18 October

Ian Gibbons. Ian is an Associate Director working for Trowbridge County Council. A committed Christian and worship leader, he is heavily involved with the whole process of 'transforming community.'

Each of these evenings promises to be excellent value and offer ideal opportunities to bring along friends and neighbours. Meals cost £10 which covers cost of speaker, food, venue and gift to staff. A choice of curries is offered. Book dates in your diary and start praying! Further details to come.
